TWOWEEKS

What is TWOWEEKS?

We are a group of professional people that volunteer on a short term basis (TWOWEEKS) with charities and organisations around the world. One of our aims is to enable people with a variety of skills to relieve suffering through improved healthcare, education and relief of social deprivation.

In November this year we are going to Lily of the Valley again (www.lilyofthevalley.org.za) in South Africa. You can join as well!!!

This event is to raise fund for us to continue our work.
